On p.12, Admissions Information, Requirements, the following Note is added after Item 2 of requirements:

Note: Neither our accrediting agency nor the state requires The Soma Institute to obtain proof of high school. Both accept an attestation. If, however, the high school listed on the student's attestation is not a public or charter school and appears to be an online or other possible bogus school, research is needed and so The Soma Institute checks both the website and asks for a high school transcript to ensure that it meets the state high school requirements.
